

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR
BRIAN N. CALLEY

Brian Calley is the second youngest lieutenant governor in Michigan's history.

Before being elected to this position, Calley served two terms in the Michigan Legislature as a state representative. In that role, Calley served as minority vice chair of the House Tax Policy Committee where he worked with lawmakers from both sides of the aisle.

Prior to his time as a state lawmaker, Calley worked 10 years as a community banker and small business lender. He was also elected to the Ionia County Board of Commissioners, serving from 2003 to 2006 as the vice chairman for all four years of his tenure there. Calley graduated from Michigan State University in 1998 with a B.A. in business administration and received his MBA from Grand Valley State University in 2000.

Lieutenant Governor Calley is a lifelong Michigander. He and his wife Julie have been married since 1996 and live in Portland with their three young children.
